

THANKSGIVING FEAST

by Emily Gibbs

I am thankful for my five senses.
I am also thankful for the THANKSGIVING Feast with family and friends. On THANKSGIVING I see a big big turkey. I hear people talking at the table. The smell of turkey cooking and it smells good because it has salt and hot pepper. I feel turkey and it feels smooth. I taste turkey and it tastes good but a little salty/peppery/spicy and cheesy.
