

Grateful Essay

By: Kathy Monzon

This Thanksgiving, I am thankful for three things. First, I am thankful for a HOME. I am thankful for a home because some people are homeless. They also have to sleep outside. When you are homeless, it is hard for you to survive without any food or water. This issue is very unfair. People who have homes are very lucky. Second, I am thankful for a FAMILY. I am thankful for a family because some people are lonely and they have nobody with them to have fun. Also, I live with them and they help me with whatever I need help with. My family also buys me clothes, shoes, they cook for me, they spend time with me and they are very, very nice to me. When I spend time with my family, I always have fun! They also take me places and sometimes they surprise me with awesome things! They always make my day the best. Finally, I am thankful for my HEALTH. I am thankful for my health because I can walk and I can do whatever I need to do. I also have all the body parts that I need. Some people do not have arms or legs or any other parts of their body. It is difficult to do things without arms or legs (and without any other important things of your body). Those are the things I am thankful for and the reasons why I am thankful for those things. HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
