

What I'm Thankful for

I'm thankful for my family, because they love me, support me, and they brought me to this world. I'm thankful for being in THIS family, I could have been in another family, but I think this is the best one. Everyday, my family supports me, and they help me out a lot. I'm also thankful for my friends, they helped me in some circumstances, and kept me on the positive side, I do not know what I would be doing without my friends. Another thing I'm thankful for is my teachers, as they have taught me a lot of things, they taught me math, science, ELA, art, etc. I'm thankful for out of all the states I could have lived in, I live in New York. New York is probably the best place I have ever been to. It's got everything, My friends, parks, Tall buildings, tasty food, and more. And if I never went to New York, I would never meet my friends, who are super nice and supportive. I'm thankful for being born at this time period. Before days were much more complicated, and it was harder to live. But I'm happy I was born in the 21st century (which is the age of technology which is also a good part about this time period.) I'm also thankful for being chosen to such a great school known as McKinley Junior High, they have great Teachers, staff, and students. I'm also thankful for my neighborhood, because its quiet and peaceful and a great place to live with nice people by your side.
