

What I am Grateful for...

In life I am grateful for many things but some specifically.

I am grateful for my family because they help me feed me and I would not be alive without them.

I am also grateful for snow because I love love love snow because I love to play in it.

Last but not least I am grateful for food because we all rely on food.

This is what I am grateful for.

By Jackson Tarbert

