

Giving Thanks

By Kelly Escamilla, Class 4-317, P.S. 238

Thanksgiving is the time when you say what you're thankful for. I am thankful for my friends and family members and teacher.

I am thankful for my family. My family has been with me my entire life. I am most grateful to them because they take care of me. Your parents are the number one people in your life. Your parents do everything for the family and especially you because you are their child. Some stuff your parents do is to take care of you to is cook, buy you clothes to wear, buy food, and more. You should always be thankful for your parents.

The second thing I am thankful for is my friends. My friends, or BFFs, make me happy and they are Ashely, Tatiana, Olivia, and Maria S. They have always helped me when I am sad and when I am angry. They help me like 100,000,000 percent. They are the best BFFs ever and even though we get mad of each other, we are BFFs forever.

My last thing I am thankful for is my teacher. My teacher has always helped me when I need help with work at school. She checks if I did any errors and she wants me to get good grades.

These are the three things that God gave me that I am most grateful for in my life. I love these people in my life, especially my family.
