

Thanksgiving

Things you should be Thankful for: your amazing friends, your parents, music, teachers, books and more...

your amazing friends

Your amazing friends make you realize how important and fantastic you are! Let them know how much you appreciate them.

Be Thankful...

Don't be afraid

your parents

They are loving you for who you are. Your parents are who will always make sure you're doing the best you can in life.

Be Nice

Be Strong

Music

Music is our direct way of escaping symptoms of sadness and stress.

teachers

who continue to positively impact your life by teaching you about situations beyond what is taught in a classroom.

Be a good person

books

that keep you cozy with a warm cup of hot chocolate on a chilly winter evening.
