

The Gift of Thanksgiving

Red, yellow, brown leaves

The wind shaking all the trees

Thanksgiving is here in a blink of a light

There is one thing I'm thankful for tonight

My dad is home from a long, long deployment

And it's been such an enjoyment

My family is here all in one place

At night sitting near our new fire place

Thanksgiving is the time to be very grateful

And those who have are very thankful

Thanksgiving is the best time of year

So spend it with your family and enjoy that thanksgiving cheer!
