

Why I am Thankful

I am thankful for a lot of things here are some things i am most thankful for. I am thankful for my family because they take good care of me and they are very caring I love them. I am thankful for my house because it gives me shelter and a place to live. Another thing i am thankful for is my teacher's for helping me learn new things and make new friends at school. Those are a few reasons i am very thankful.
