What I Am Thankful for this Year

This year I am thankful for my family, friends, and my two favorite sports, soccer and swimming. Being thankful means that you are happy with what you have. I'm thankful for these things because they give me something to do. It's important to be thankful for something.

Family supports me, nourishes me, and keeps me strong. My family is the most important thing in my life. Without them I would be depressed. I look up to them and sometimes they look up to me! I love them very much. My family gives me food and a roof over my head.

I look forward to seeing my friends every day. My friends are people who I can trust. I have lots of fun with them. When I was younger I used to go up to people and try to make friends with them. Now I am more shy, but I have lots of friends that support me and like me!

Sports are a big part of my life. In the beginning my dad made me do them, now I do sports because they make me happy! I love to swim because it makes me feel free. Soccer is my most favorite sport because I can run like the wind.

All these things I care about greatly. They make me a better person. I'm thankful they are in my life!
