

People That I am Thankful For

By Ella

This year I am thankful for so many things but these are the four people that I am most thankful for this year.

The first person I am thankful for are my parents. I am thankful for my parents because they help me with my homework. Another reason I am thankful for them because they always take good care of me.

The next person I am thankful for is my grandma. I am thankful for my grandma because she cooks for me everyday. Another reason I am thankful for her is that she picks me up at my bus stop everyday.

The third person that I am thankful for is my little brother. I am thankful for my little brother because he cheers me up. Another reason I am thankful for him is that he always help me if I am sick.

The last person I am thankful for is my cousin Rebecca. She is my only cousin that is my age and wants to play with me. Everyone else is older or younger. I am thankful for my cousin because she plays with me and keeps me company. Another reason that I am thankful for her is that she always teaches me new things about what she learns in her school.

This year for Thanksgiving I am thankful for so many people. But these are the main people that I am thankful for this year.
