What am I Thankful for in 2019?

Gratitude is the feeling of being thankful and appreciative. Other people might consider themselves thankful for toys, food, and a roof over their head; however, this year to me, I am most thankful for the opportunities I've been given by my family. Three opportunities I've been given are being able to be part of the East Hampton Hurricanes, being the owner of a dog, and having the opportunity to live in a safe town surrounded by beautiful beaches.

The first opportunity I've been given by my parents is swimming on the East Hampton Hurricanes. I'm thankful for this because when I'm swimming, I feel relaxed and not worried about school or personal problems.

Another opportunity I've been given is being the owner of a pug. "A pug is living proof that God has a sense of humor"-Margo Kaufman. When I'm sad or mad all I do is look down at Leo. He is always happy and wagging his tail and it just gives you no other choice than to smile back.

My third and final opportunity is living in a safe town surrounded by beautiful beaches. I am thankful for this because I don't have to worry as much about the dangers of schools. We all want these problems to go away but they're real and we can't hide from them. Meanwhile, I love the beautiful beaches. I mostly enjoy them during the summer when I surf. Although, I'm not the best, I got the basics down.

In conclusion, this year I'm thankful for the opportunities I've been given mostly by my parents. But by also working hard, I have been very successful this year. Therefore, these are the three opportunities I am most thankful for.
