What I am Thankful for This Year of 2019?

I am thankful for many incredible events, objects, people, and much more. I am always thankful for everything and anything but I will share three areas that I am most thankful for.

One amazing area that I am thankful for is my life. My life is full of ups and downs but my life is awesome! Life gives me the chance to experience all that I have and am experiencing, and will be experiencing in the time to come. I have learned so much about life. I have learned things from school, mistakes, communication, and stories that were passed down. I am glad to learn these things and I am glad to learn so much more.

Secondly, the people that I am super thankful for are my loving family! I am so happy to be a part of my family. I am glad to be born and raised in my family household as they are fabulous. They have taught me, cared for me, cheered me up, helped me, and made me the mature person I am today. My family doesn't judge me and I always feel safe around them. They make me comfortable and protect me. Truly, I know that I am loved and cared for and I love and care for my family too:).

The last wonderful are that I am thankful for is God. I am religious so I believe in God, Jesus, Holy spirits and angels. I believe that God is the creator of this world. I believe that God created all the interesting and beautiful creatures of the world. I believe created us and chose our lives for a purpose. God chose to put us on this earth. I believe that if God has not existed than humans could not roam the earth. I am thankful for everything that God has done for us.

I am always thankful for so many more things too. I am thankful for everything, even negatives, because all things can make an impact on our lives. This concludes "What I am Thankful for This Year of 2019"!

"Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos into order, and confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend." -Melody Beattie
