What am I Thankful for This Year?

I am so thankful for the year 2019. I was given so many great opportunities, such as: living in an amazing community, having a loving family, and enjoying freedom. I am quite blessed with a marvelous and fantastic life.

First off, I have the opportunity to engage in activities such as piano. Music is my motivation. My father plays baseball with me and I play in little league. Also, I am so grateful for my education. My teachers are so nice; they encourage me to read and challenge myself so I become smarter.

In addition, I live in such a safe and enchanting environment. We have police everywhere to make sure everyone is safe and secure. The oceans here on Long Island are beautiful. The ocean is so calm and relaxing. When I go to the beach when it's not crowded and I can really think clearly and I love to swim in it.

Furthermore, I am so thankful for my community. One example is Katy's Kids Greif Group. For kids who have lost a relative of theirs. I lost my father when I was five and they are really supportive and helpful to my sister and me.

Lastly, I am so grateful for my stepfather. My stepfather plays baseball with me. He motivates me. One of his sayings is: "People hate the thought of doing it, but they don't hate doing it." He teaches me tricks to make certain things easier and he is really an awesome replacement dad. And of course, I am thankful for all the food, clothes, and shelter I get.

In review, I am so thankful for everything this year and all and all, life is great.
