

Thank You

On Thanksgiving, we are nice and cozy.
We think, What are we thankful for?

The answer comes through the course of the day.
We see what we are thankful for.

You change into your very best outfit.

You know that you are thankful for clothes.

You gulp down a cup of water.

You realize you are thankful for drinks.

The big feast comes, and you stuff yourself turkey.

You realize you are thankful for food.

You gather in a great big hug.

You know that you are thankful for family.

You sleep in a big warm room.

You know you are thankful for shelter.

You are thankful for many things more.

You realize on the day of Thanksgiving.
