

Thanksgiving is the time when we take time to think of the matters that we are thankful for.

To start of, I am thankful for my friends, family, principals, and teachers. I am thankful for these type of people because they always cheer me up when I am feeling down; my teachers will make me smarter; my friends will be by my side, and my family will always love me. Another gift I appreciate is my education. Additionally, my school allows me to play sports. If I never had an education, I would've never have been allowed to play sports, which is my favorite hobby. The last two gifts I am grateful for are football and the NFL (National Football League). I am thankful for these things because football is a great sports, and I love it. Also, the NFL is where I want to be one day, and the players in the NFL inspire me to do more. In conclusion, these things are the gifts I give thanks to the Lord for Thanksgiving.

By: Justin Haviland