By Addison Cease

I am mostly grateful for a lot of things. Some things that I'm grateful for are family and friends.

I have a supporting family. For example, I have a family that keeps me safe from covid. that they will help me when i'm sick. Also, they go out in dangerous covid. This proves, they have to do a lot of dangerous things.

I have helpful friends that stay by my back. For example, i have friends that talk to me when i'm not feeling well or when i'm sad. they help me get through things. Also, Im Happy that my friends are safe from covid. that you don't want your friends to get sick.

In conclusion, this is what I'm really thankful for this year. And this is really important because you don't want people to get sick.
