

Thanks for all God's amazing gifts and love ! By Bella Mia Aviles

Lights are flashing, the colors of trees are booming.

Guitar players are using their bare tired fingers to make boys and girls happy .

Choirs singing heavenly playing singing to god.

A little girl named Bella Mia writing her poem wishing to pray. Watching leaves what a thankful world!

Bringing her joy for thankful gifts.

She's so thankful she can't even think off the top of her head.

She thought of some that were pleasing to her fall spirit.

She's so darling, thankful for her gifts and God's glory.

And her grandma's interesting turkey that is amazingly good.

So in all Bella Mia Aviles is thankful for her family and her life that is still long.
