

Thanksgiving Poem

Thanksgiving, a time of happiness,

A time you have a sense of thankfulness,

In thanksgiving, everyone thanks for what they have

I'm thankful for family, but some people don't have,

I'm also thankful for food and friends,

But some people only have befriended.

I'm thankful for my education.

But others can't even afford a vacation.

I'm very thankful for everything I have and don't have.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving!!
