

A Thanksgiving Dinner

This is fall, this is fall!
The time for autumn leaves had come,
As the coding winds began to call,
I go outside because it's fall!
Colors are everywhere,
Everyone needs love and care.
We ought to make the moments,
Of happy, good Thanksgiving.
The hours and days, a silent phrase,
Of thanks that we are living.
It's time for our Thanksgiving dinner!
For my hands hold apples red,
And melons gold, yellow corn,
They're ripe and sweet,
Peas and beans are so good to eat.
I love to have a yummy feast!
With turkey from New Jersey,
And pumpkin pies, that meet the eyes,
I also wanna have some ham,
Oh, together with cranberry jam!
I'm thankful for a lot of things,
I am thankful I live in a home,
I am thankful I have a phone.
I am thankful I have something to eat,
I am thankful I have nice teeth.
I am thankful for a lot of stuff,
But I care for one thing most,
I am very thankful for my family,
And they make me so happy.
So the theme should swell and grow,
As weeks and months pass over us,
Spend and share a good time,
A grand Thanksgiving dinner,
And a glad Thanksgiving rhyme!
