Since this year has been so chaotic and stressful because of COVID, I was able to truly see what I am grateful for. The first thing that comes to my mind when I make a list of all the things I am thankful for is my family. My family has always been with me through the hardest times in my life and has been there for me when I needed them through the sad and dark times. They have always helped me make difficult decisions. I am also thankful for my faith for getting me through the times of isolation and for helping me come out of COVID with a stronger sense of meaning.
