

I am thankful for

the smooth brand new books in my shelf,
The tiny little guppies in my lively tank,
and my calm berded dragon in the warm "mansion".

The many leftover candy from halloween.

And the bowling party for my birthday.

And my figity brother,

that cheers me up when I am sad.

The collection of video games,

and funko pops,

the money I earned

from all the hard work all week.

I am thankful for

My family life
