

Thanksgiving Writing Contest

*The breeze of the gale
My thick silky hair flowing like an angel
Leaves falling down the trees
The sun shining bright over the ocean
What a day to be thankful for*

*Her eyes brown like my aunts cushion
Her hair curly like broccoli
Her kind self always making me feel welcome
My best friend
What a person to be thankful for*

*Always fooling around like a silly puppy
Watching tv and having a big smile on her face
Yelling my name and hugging me tight when I come home from school
I present you my baby sister, Amaia
What a person to be thankful for*

*I go outside shopping or exploring places
I see homeless people on streets
I wonder how much they go through and how much they suffer
How hard they try to provide for their children or themselves
I am thankful for having a roof over my head*

I go with my mom to get groceries

I see delicious foods like turkey and grilled chicken

I smell the freshly fresh foods

I wonder how lucky I am to be able to afford all of these delicious foods

I am thankful for being able to have food to eat

I go to school everyday trying to put my best effort in

I try my best to focus on class and not get distracted though sometimes I get off track

I try my best to be on my best behavior and not give my teachers a hard time

I am thankful for being able to have an education
