That is what I am thankful for but mainly my beloved family. Now it is time for my actual poem.

*It is thanksgiving time, a time to give thanks
I'm thankful for great actors, just like tom hanks
Don't forget that im thankful for earth
I'm also thankful for my beloved birth
For without it i would never be alive
But i am and now it's time for a deeper dive
I'm now digging deeper to thing a little more deep
Like how I love horror movies that give me a creep
But the most important thing is my FAMILY!!!!
For they care for, watchout for, and always love me
Thats what im thankful for without a doubt Now lets you thanks come out of the ground cause daring thanksgiving they must sprout*
