“Thankful For”

Gratitude has shown me care throughout the years.

By showing this care, I really got nothing to bear

But the love that tends to spread by my family on Thanksgiving day

Is something I would never want to give away

Especially watching the Thanksgiving parade, and that would be a yay!

For the family I would never give away on this very Thanksgiving day, to something I am thankful for is the years and memories with the roof over my head

For a wonderful year and so many more memories to share!
