Thanksgiving Day Creative Celebration- Poem

Everyday should be Thanksgiving

One day is not enough

To tell our friends how much they mean to us

One day is not enough

To breathe in the fresh air and be grateful for our Earth

One day is not enough

To show our appreciation to our teachers

One day is not enough

To admire the beautiful animals that roam among us

One day is not enough

To tell your mom, "I love you"

Life is short

And one day is not enough
