

Thanksgiving, The fourth Thursday of November,
Can't wait to get to the chilling chills of December,
Remember. Family is always first but can sometimes be the worst,
Have a seat and let this egg nog quench your thirst.
Sweet potato pie for dessert, when it comes to dinner I want to be first.
It hurts, so many are gone and embalmed they've been put in the dirt,
No feeling is worse, we've all been hurt.
We come first, our family is diverse
Cultural meals we all enjoy
We celebrate life and each other
We're thankful for the family
Nothing is more important.
