Experiences

The past which has
Molded me, is who I must
Thank. Because it's past experience
That makes the present, the present.
For, I am so joyful for where I am
At, that experiences much be thanked,
Both good and bad. Experience may
Be a person, a brother, or friend, or experience
May be a moment that will never end. An Experience can be great or horrendous, but regardless
You should still be thankful. Because without My experiences I would never be Me.
