

Bailey Regan

SJBDHS

28 October 2021

What I Am Thankful For This Year

Having a busy schedule, and seeing my friends almost every day

My family (always, but especially so now)

Going to my grandparent's house, talking to them about their childhoods, painting with my grandmother, and hearing my grandfather's advice

Hugs and holding hands

Bike rides in the afternoon

Watching the leaves change color and fall, bright red and gold and orange and yellow

How beautiful our Earth (and everyone on it) is

Texts that say "I love you!"

Full houses, loud audiences, and waiting backstage before the curtain parts

The sound of an orchestra preparing for a show

Waving at my friends in the hallways during school, and rushing to talk when class is over

How far I've come