

Thanksgiving Essay

- What Qualities do you Have that you are Thankful for? -
- By: Cassidy Shaffer-

A quality is the feature or characteristic of a person or thing. I am thankful for three amazing qualities. The four qualities that I am thankful for are caring, intelligence, and loving Caring is defined as kindness and concern for others. The reason why I think I am caring is because I always care for my family and friends. For my family, I always help them bake, clean and many other things. For my friends who may not be feeling too well, I can give them a letter full of love and hope. This is the reason why I am thankful for the quality caring.

Intelligence is defined as having or showing the ability to easily learn or understand things or to deal with new or difficult situations. The reason why I think I am intelligent is because I hold the doors for people, I show up on time and dress appropriately. I also think this because people say I am very smart. This is the reason why I am thankful for the quality intelligent.

Love is defined as feeling, showing, or indicating love and affection. The first reason why I think I am loving is because I always help my mom bake anything if she needs help. I also help my mom bring in the groceries and put it in the fridge. The last reason why I think I am loving is because if someone is sad I make them happy all of the time.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta, left us with these words that make so much sense to me: "Spread love everywhere you go. Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier."
