

Giving Thanksgiving

~ by Brielle Heeran

We need to give thanks,
Every dawn,
For the gifts of life,
For each breath drawn.

I am thankful because I care.
I care for my family and friends,
I care for my teachers and peers,
The amount of care always depends.

I am thankful because I am loyal,
I show loyalty towards my friends,
I don't lie or start rumors,
My loyalty only extends.

I am thankful because I am kind,
I spread kindness around the world,
I always am kind to my teachers and peers,
I want to take away all types of tears.

I am thankful because I am loving,
I love my friends and family,
I love my siblings and hope they have no fears,
I will continue to love over the years.

I am so thankful for Thanksgiving,
The very special day,
One thing I would like to say,
Happy Thanksgiving to all on this day!
