

Thankfulness

~by Adison Heeran~

There are many qualities I am thankful for,
Faith is one that I adore,
I am thankful for faith because it lets me believe in God,
He makes things better when life gets odd.

Another quality I am thankful for is praise,
It lets you talk to God in many ways,
Praise helps many people with their troubles,
Since each and every day problem doubles.

I am also thankful for trust,
It helps me rely on people I must,
It helps me see my true friends,
The ones in which our friendships will never end.

Finally I am thankful for love,
I love everyone in my family including the ones up above,
On Thanksgiving I show this to my family by spending time with them,
My family is what makes Thanksgiving a gem.

Thanksgiving is a special time,
It is the opposite of a sour lime,
Thanksgiving isn't just a myth,
Thanksgiving is about the people you are with.
