

What Qualities Do You Have That You Are Thankful For?

By Alexandra Delgado

I am thankful for being funny, grateful, and caring. I am grateful for my family because some people do not have a family. I am also grateful for all that my family does for me. I am thankful for being funny because that I how I can make friends. I like to make other people laugh. It makes me feel better. I am thankful for being caring because when people are sad, I give them a hug and it makes me feel so good about myself. I am so thankful for having all these qualities. What qualities do you have?
