

ThanksGiving Poem

By Alim

Thanksgiving is near.

Can you believe it?

I am so grateful for shelter, food, water. And education

I am really competitive I really do not like to lose

Sometimes I may argue and be aggressive

That is just how I am

Soccer and gaming oh I am most good at

I spend a lot of time on that

If I become a soccer player it would impact the world by,

Kids getting inspired

I can donate some of my money I make (which is a lot)

A lot of people will follow me which means I can spread good messages around

HAPPY THANKSGIVING
