

-The Qualities I have that I am Thankful for-

~ by Ava DiBenedetto

The main qualities that one should be thankful for is LOVE. Love is the ability to have a great interest and pleasure in something. It is an intense feeling of deep affection. Love is something that is very powerful. I try to show love in everything that I do. Love is something that is contagious. This is my quality that I am very thankful for.

Another quality one needs to have is EMPATHY. Empathy is the ability to understand and share the feelings of another; you have the ability to sense others emotions. You can have the ability to imagine what someone else might be thinking or feeling. I always have empathy for anyone sitting alone or any homeless people. This is my quality that I am thankful for.

Another quality one needs to consider is FAITH. Faith is the ability to believe in something you can't see. My Faith is that I believe in Jesus Christ, our only savior. I have never seen Jesus in person but I still believe in him and everything he does for all mankind. This is another quality I am thankful for.

That last quality I am thankful for is dedication. Dedication is a very important thing. Dedication is the ability to be committed to a purpose or task. I always try to show dedication in every single thing that I do no matter what. Many people can't do the things that I can do so I take advantage of it and give 110% effort every single time. This is a quality that I am most thankful for.
