

Thanksgiving Contest Essay

Thanksgiving is a day of being grateful and thankful for the stuff that we have whether it's family, friends, something that we got, or a quality that we have. I have a few qualities for which I am thankful. The quality that I am most thankful for is my creativity.

I have always been pretty creative, ever since I was a child. When I was younger, my creativity focused more on making stuff. I would make a lot of stuff out of papers or other resources around me. Now, my creativity focuses more on painting, drawing, and writing. I always liked painting and drawing, but I was never very good at it. Recently, I started painting and drawing more often. I started becoming better at it. I also started writing more often last year. So, I became better at it. This all led me to become more creative. My creativity even helped me become a better baker.

Being thankful for the things we have is part of what Thanksgiving is all about. This year, I am grateful for many things. Although, the thing that I am most thankful for is my creativity. Because of my creativity, I am better at painting, drawing, writing, and even baking.
