

Thanksgiving Poem

I like that I am friendly
I make sure to include people who are new
I also try to see through their point of view

I like that I can be funny
If someone is feeling down I can make them happy again
Their happiness chart will go from zero to a ten

I love that I can dance well
I can put on a show
It may not be perfect though

I like that I am confident
I am not scared to show who I am
Whether I am showing who I am to a man or a ma'am

I like that I can be independent
Sometimes I may still need a helping hand
But most people can understand
