

What Qualities Do You Have That You Are Thankful For?

By Omar Alqadri

I am thankful for being helpful, grateful, and thoughtful. I am helpful because when my friends need help with a question or homework, I offer to help them. I help my little sister with her homework. I am grateful for my cousins. They always make sure I am doing ok. I am grateful for my family. Finally, I am thoughtful. My Mom says that I am thoughtful because on Mother's Day, I wanted to give my mom a present and presents to my sister on her birthday. In conclusion, I am thankful for these three qualities.
