My Thanksgiving Poem

I am thankful for my many traits
My art, my music, my spark,
I love them, no debate
People laughing brings me joy
And that's what I try to do
One small laugh is a better day
Both for me, and for you.

Respect others with kindness
You might hear people say
Its true, one small act of kindness
Can change somebody's day

I am kind to everybody,
Yes, them all
I treat them all equally
There is no big or small.
On kindness the world does depend
Kindness never ends.
