

Thanksgiving Day is a day where people get together with families, friends, and many others to celebrate Thanksgiving. Some other ways to celebrate Thanksgiving is by serving a lot of food to your family and friends and to share what you are grateful for.

Some Qualities that I have is being kind, one way I am kind is by listening to my mom, whenever she needs my help, another way of being kind is by helping a person when help is needed. Another quality is that I have decent humor and the reason why I say I have decent humor is because I am nice to people and sometimes I would be anti-social. Anti-social is where you don't like talking to people which means you don't really want to talk to people but have a few people to talk to.

These are just some examples of the qualities that help me get through my life and for which I am grateful.
