

Thankfulness

Acrostic Poem By Shiraz Famouri-Lee

Thankfulness is gratitude, acknowledgement, appreciative, and gratefulness.

Having all the opportunities we have, not everyone else has.

And we should be thankful for them.

Nobody should be unthankful.

Knowing that, I'm thankful for my family, for food, and for shelter.

Fixing the world requires people to pay it forward.

Uplifting people's hearts will also help make the world a better place.

Life isn't just about you, it's also about others.

Naturally everyone has a different opinion, but that shouldn't disunify us.

Engineering a better world for everyone is our goal.

Sure it might be hard, but we should at least try.

So to accomplish this, we'll practice thankfulness, we'll pay it forward, we'll uplift people's hearts, and we won't let arguments disunify us.
