

Thanksgiving Day Celebrating My Qualities

Since Thanksgiving is coming up, it's a time to be thankful for all the things and qualities that I have. I have a good amount of things for which I am thankful.

First I am thankful for my family, and how loved and blessed I am to have a family. Second, I am thankful for my friends, especially my best friends. I also have some qualities for which I am very thankful. The first one is the ability to dance. I love to dance so much and it makes me so happy that I am able to dance. One other quality I am thankful for is my personality. I think I have a nice personality. I like talking to people but I get a little shy. One last quality I have that I'm thankful for is my handwriting. I love my handwriting in script, even though it's not the best. I really like it and try my best to make it neat and look nice.

In conclusion, I am very thankful for the things I have and the people in my life, but also the qualities that make me, me. Thanksgiving is also giving back and I can share my good qualities with others.
