

Kind

Caring

My Thanksgiving Poem

By: Soliana

I am very kind, thoughtful and caring! You're feeling down, I'm there to cheer you up. You got a bad test score and are upset, I'll say "it's ok" and you will feel better. Spilled some water, I'll help clean up.

When someone needs a hug I'll be there for them. If anyone I know seems down, I'll be there to see what's wrong. When you're thoughtful you consider other people's feelings, which is awesome!

When I'm caring and kind to someone they will be too. They'll go to someone and do the same. Then people will help anywhere and whenever they can. It will soon become a kindness train.
