

"Personal Qualities that Shine With the Stars"

Hello, to the world that has lost its color,

I talk to the moon like it's a distant friend.

About the things I love, cherish and hate in the end.

"What makes me so different from the rest?" I wonder...

The red rose? Or the perfect strike of thunder?

"Originality..." I heard, "is what many people lack."

Possibly because this world is getting old and rotting away, like the thoughts that I thought expired.

Spreading warmth, knowing someone's there, and helping along the way... is a quality I hope to maintain and stay aware.

Having a Loving and open heart is what my mother has taught me, and still till' this day.

Freedom, like a butterfly spreading its wings, is what I hope to bring to the world with me.

Many questions I hope to answer...

Comes With these possessions; the qualities I have in me.

I'm filled with curiosity and hope.

I'm filled with sunshine and smiles.

I'm filled with energy and optimism.

I'm filled with love and open arms reaching from my chest.

I am me.

As the day goes on I say hello to the twilight night and welcome the stars.

I talk to the moon and notice its relationship to the sky and the sun.

Like the stars, moon and sun, each of us has qualities that shine.

Even as the stars are bright at the darkest times,

I hope to be there for my friends at their toughest times.

Hello, to the world of color.
