

Thanksgiving is a time to be grateful,
you should not be hateful.

There's turkey to eat,
it's taste can't be beat.

You feel compassion, you feel empathy,
but at Thanksgiving you can be filled with glee.

People will dance, people will sing,
when you're with your family you can do anything.
There are many reasons to give thanks and gratitude,
on Thanksgiving you shouldn't have a bad attitude.

I love my mother and my brothers,

I love my sister and father.

That is what Thanksgiving is all about,
there is no way that you should pout.

HAVE A BLESSED THANKSGIVING!
