

-The Traits I Am Thankful For-

~ by Ashlee Ferriola

I am thankful for all of my positive qualities,
This Thanksgiving I will think and about all my abilities,
I am thankful that my abilities help me in many things,
I am thankful for what my abilities bring.

I am thankful for my kindness,
It gives me the ability to have politeness,
I am thankful for what kindness does for me,
Because kindness is key.

I am thankful for my loyalty,
Being loyal prevents me from cruelty,
I have worked on being loyal and understanding,
This has helped me make my relationships with people outstanding.

I thankful for my hard working,
Because of my hard working in school I am emerging,
My working helps me do good in school,
And my family thinks that is cool.

I am thankful for my ability to be trustworthy,
Because friends trusting you is most worthy,
My friends know I won't tell other people,
If you tell someone's secret that is just pure evil.

I thankful for my ability to love,
When you love someone it makes them feel all of the above,
Loving people make me happy,
Being happy does not make you snappy.
