

My name is Elijah Drew. I am a sixth grade student at Boquet Valley Central School District. I like to go outside and play some sports and football. I also enjoy hanging out with my friends and family. This essay will explain three qualities that I am thankful for, I am talented in many different subjects and classes. I am passionate and if something gets in my way I remove it. I try to have confidence in myself and make sure I get things done.

The first quality is I am talented in many classes and typically get good grades. I am thankful to have this quality to get good grades in school and have fun while doing it. Getting good grades also makes my parents proud and I feel proud too. This quality can help me in the future for doing well in college and a job. I also can continue to have a positive attitude that way.

I am also passionate about the things I like doing. If I am into something, I get it done and nothing stops me. I'm thankful for this quality because it makes me generally get good grades in classes I enjoy. This quality may help me in the future because if I get a job I like to do, I will have a successful career. My passion has gotten me far as a student.

A good quality I also have is confidence. This helps me go into situations well behaved and ready for classes. I am thankful for this quality so I can do essays like this, gym sports, and a lot of things that require confidence. Having confidence helps me achieve my goals as a student. This quality can help me later in life by having confidence at a job interview. Confidence will be important for the rest of my life through college and a job. Confidence helps me go into things with a good mindset so that I am able to get tasks done.

Being talented has given me good grades and it makes my parents and myself proud. Having passion has allowed me to enjoy things and have fun. Nothing can ruin it! Finally, my confidence has brought me successfully through tests and essays like this one. I am thankful to have all of these qualities to help me. My confidence, passion, and talent in my work has brought me far throughout my years of life. These qualities will help me for the rest of school, college, and in a future career I might have.
