

In a international that spins and twirls so fast,
I locate my anchor, steadfast and significant.
A heartfelt thanks, I long to carry,
For my own family, buddies, and instructors, daily.

To my family, strong and genuine,
You elevate me up, you assist me through.
With love that flows, a bond so tight,
I'm grateful for you, morning to night time.

Friends like stars that light my way,
In every season, come what may additionally.
With laughter, secrets, hand in hand,
I'm thankful for the pleasure you've got.

Teachers, publications, who share their mild,
Igniting minds, making futures vivid.
With patience, knowledge, you lead the way,
I'm thankful for you, come what may additionally.

Each lesson learned, each word you've spoken,
In my heart, it is not forgotten.
With gratitude, I stand tall and loose,
For my own family, friends, and teachers who believe in me.

So right here's to you, my loved crew,
For all you are, for all you do.
In every smile, in every cheer,
I find my gratitude, crystal clean.
