

What attributes am I thankful for?

Persistent

When I have a task I set my mind to it and let NOTHING else distract me. Being persistent allows me to do other things that I actually want to do. This is a skill that I have that I will always be grateful for.

Leadership

Let me make this very clear I don't want the word "bossy" to come into mind when I say leadership. The trait I possess is more along the lines of helping people in need and being a leader in their lives. I am thankful for having this trait because it gives me relief that I can make something happen.

Daring

Being daring enables me to do things an average person has no interest in, whether because they are scared or something I don't know. But, I know for certain that I can, and will, live my life to the fullest.

Ambitious

Ambition is a trait that I think EVERYONE should have. To have that determination to want to succeed can be used in everyday life and is something I use every day. That is why I am so thankful to have this trait
