

WHAT AM I THANKFUL FOR?

Organized

No matter what I am doing, I am always organized. Being organized helps me stay on track and know where everything is when I need it. I am so grateful to possess this trait and always be a step ahead.

Driven

Whenever I am set on a goal, I stop at almost nothing to achieve it. This is a good thing, but can also have consequences. Overall though, I am so thankful to be able to set my mind to something and finish it at all costs.

Adventurous

I just love a good adventure. Being in the outdoors allows me to clear my mind and be with nature. There is truly nothing like it. An adventure is a great way to experience and discover new things. I am thankful to be able to have the time to have an adventure once in a while.
