

New York State Senate

Thanksgiving Day Celebration

The qualities I have that I am thankful for are being adventurous, respectful, helpful, and nice.

I am thankful for being adventurous. I am a member of Boy Scouts Troop 77. My troop leader takes us on hiking trips, camping trips, and teaches us how to build fires and set up camping grounds. I like being outdoors.

I am thankful for being respectful. I respect others by listening to my classmates when they are answering a question and when my teacher is teaching us an important lesson in math, science or reading. I also respect my parents by listening to them when they're teaching a life lesson on how to become a better person.

I am thankful for being helpful. I am helpful because I help my mom do chores around the house. I help her sweep, do the laundry, and swiffer the floors. I like to help my mom so we can finish up the chores faster and spend time together doing fun things. I help my elderly neighbor by taking in her mail, newspaper and grocery shopping for her. I help my grandparents sweep their leaves, shovel their snow and I also help my younger siblings with their homework.

I am thankful for being nice. I am a nice person because I do a lot of nice things in my community. I donate clothes to the needy, food to the food banks and always ask anyone if they need help. This shows all the qualities that I am thankful for.

By: Salvatore Ragucci